

LOGLINE :

The woman abruptly opens her eyes, panics in her mind when she can't move her body, then soon realizes that she's inside a closed casket, reminiscing about her rich life up to this point and how she ended up in such a terrifying predicament.

SYNOPSIS :

Ivy Alvarez is a successful entrepreneur and businesswoman. She is over the moon about her upcoming nuptials to a handsome and successful architect and has been dreaming of this moment. Her wish finally comes true.

One ill-fatal day, she finds herself inside a dark casket, without any recollections of how she got there. The terrified bride escapes from the scary ordeal. But soon finds out that her identity was stolen from her, losing everything and anyone she had. Ivy is determined to find who's behind her failed death. Will she find out the truth and take back the life she once had?